Free “Money Conference” on Friday, Feb. 10, in Tuba City

*“This is a great educational opportunity for our people and our communities.” –
Joshua Lavar Butler, Council Delegate*

TUBA CITY, Ariz. — Navajo Nation Council Delegate Joshua Lavar Butler (Tó’Nanees’Dizí—Tuba City) invites the general public to a free “Money Conference” scheduled from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 10 – tomorrow – at the Moenkopi Legacy Inn & Suites in Upper Moenkopi-Tuba City, Ariz.

The free conference will provide the opportunity to meet industry professionals to discuss important subjects, such as: credit coaching, business coaching, taxes and tips, 401K, investments and insurance review, retirement and children’s educational strategies and finance.

“This is a great educational opportunity for our people and our communities,” Butler said. “The conference’s focus is to help educate our people about money management and planning for their financial future. I anticipate the event will attract a lot of interest, considering such a conference is rarely offered in our area.”

Event sponsors include: Northern Arizona Business Networking Events, Bik’eh Hozho Community Development Corporation, Moenkopi Legacy Inn & Suites and Navajo Councilman Joshua Lavar Butler.
